Prof. Srinivas Kotyada

Title: On Ramanujan's lattice point problem.

Abstract: Lattice point problems deal with counting points with integer coordinates inside a large closed domain with a smooth boundary. Ramanujan was interested in the estimation of lattice points inside a right angled triangle. We shall discuss this problem and mention some recent progress in this direction.